

MIC TRAVERS BAND BIO

The Mic Travers Band is an all original outfit presenting the songs and music of Mic Travers. Featuring Dave Hoffmann on Tenor Saxophone and Erin Roberts on Violin and five string Viola. The Mic Travers Band is one of Queensland's hardest working bands averaging over 200 show a year on the pub and corporate circuit with thousands of live original song plays and sustained radio airplay. Mic and the crew take every opportunity to draw from the well of the musical tradition from whence they came long ago. Presenting expertly crafted original songs of life honed and road tested on tens of thousand sets of uninitiated, indifferent and unconverted ears over endless nights.

Mic Travers is a singer songwriter and multi instrumentalist with some twenty years experience having lived and performed in many different places around Australia from Darwin to Alice Springs to Cairns, To South East Queensland and Northern New South Wales to Melbourne and many places in between.

Dave Hoffmann also a well travelled seasoned performer of some twenty years experience, son of professional country musician, he cut his teeth on the tough regional touring circuit as a youngster in country rock bands and has worked with many of Australia's finest blues and country acts from Western Australia to Melbourne to South East Queensland and throughout country New South Wales.

Erin Roberts, the youngest member of the Band is currently enrolled in a Bachelor of Music and Creative Industries at QUT, is a member of the Queensland Youth Orchestra and the Brisbane Fiddle Club and is already a veteran of many festivals, workshops, sessions and Bluegrass and Celtic fiddler conventions on the eastern seaboard.
